

No State is Currently Reporting on Behalf of Junk and Salvage Yards

State motor vehicle titling agencies have separate responsibilities and reporting requirements under the NMVTIS rules and regulations than do other reporting entities, such as, auto recyclers, junk and salvage yards, and insurance carriers. Per the NMVTIS rules and regulations, state compliance includes providing data to NMVTIS, making title inquiries, and paying user fees.

Junk and salvage yards are responsible for reporting to NMVTIS:

Name, address, and contact information for the reporting entity.

VIN.

Date the automobile was obtained.

Name of the individual or entity from whom the automobile was obtained.

Statement of whether the automobile was crushed or disposed of, or offered for sale or other purposes, and whether the vehicle is intended for export out of the United States.

Junk and salvage yards are not required to report to NMVTIS through a third party data consolidator if they already report ALL the required information to their state AND the state provides the required information to NMVTIS on their behalf in a timely manner. HOWEVER, NO STATE IS CURRENTLY REPORTING ON BEHALF OF JUNK AND SALVAGE YARDS AND THESE ENTITIES ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR REPORTING THE REQUIRED INFORMATION TO NMVTIS USING A THIRD PARTY DATA CONSOLIDATOR.
